America's Premier Food Industry Exposition

Chicago Section IFT's Suppliers' Night 2011

Wednesday, November 9, 2011

Donald E. Stephens Convention Center-Rosemont, IL (Chicago)

Join more than 3000 food technology professionals at the largest regional food technology expo. In one afternoon, attendees can visit with food companies that would take over a year of appointments.

Join us at the 4th Annual Innovation NOW! Forum. It is an opportunity to learn from industry experts. This year's theme is "Innovative Food Ingredients and Flavors for 2011." We will be learning about new food ingredients and flavors related to Culinary, Health and Wellness, and Sustainable Sources.

Participate in the Nation's Largest Regional Food Technology Exhibition! In one afternoon, attendees can visit with food companies that would take over a year of appointments. Attendance is FREE! Check out our online exhibitor guide and map to get a preview of exhibitors. Avoid long lines and pre-register using our easy online registration form.

Social Hour, finish out the day with a relaxing evening with old and new friends to review the day's show!
